Central Catholic High School seeks a student body and faculty who reflect diversity in gender, ethnic background, and socio-economic status. Such (diversity encompasses more than multicultural representation; it also means the broadening of the educational experience to develop an understanding of the various geographic, cultural, gender, ethnic, racial, and religious heritages and traditions). As a Central Catholic employee, you are called upon to be a role model and a witness to the Gospel of Christ. Your main charge is to be engaged in creating an atmosphere in which the religious faith of each individual student as well as their intellectual, moral, and physical capacities can be developed.
